A MESSAGE FROM OUR CONVENTION VICE CHAIR

I've always been interested in pop culture. My family loved staying up to date with whatever nerd culture was popular at the time, and as a 4-year-old, I thought nothing strange about going to a Star Trek convention and seeing Klingons. When I first heard about Bronies in 2015, I wanted to investigate what was going on. I've always loved animated shows, so while I was at work, I put on My Little Pony: Friendship is Magic in the background. I quickly realized how smartly written and adorable it was, and that it was no longer just the toy I remembered from childhood with stiff, immovable figures.

When I saw that a new convention was starting in the Chicago area, I decided to volunteer to see what this kind of event was like. That was the first year of Whinny City Pony Con, and I volunteered in the AV department. What surprised me most was finding a sense of community that I would describe as the equivalent of being in Disney World: everyone was so happy to be around each other and to be "home." I recognized myself in all the weirdos and misfits around me, and I was amazed to find a sense of belonging and purpose that my full-time job didn't give me.

Since then, I've volunteered every year, eventually escaping the AV team to become the Operations Director, and earlier this year I was asked to join as Vice Chair. In the political climate we find ourselves in, where there is so much hate, it is incredibly important to me to continue giving my time and effort to all of you so we can continue to have a safe space for us weirdos and misfits (and normal people too). It makes my heart so happy to help create a place where everyone can be themselves and enjoy Friendship, Magic, and this year, game shows.
